Statement of Faith

ChristianCycling sees the Bible as central to our understanding of God, His plan for us, and as the basis for our understanding of who we are. We understand the divine inspiration, inerrancy, and consequent authority of the Old and New Testaments (2 Tim. 3:16,17). ChristianCycling recognizes the One living and true God, creator of everything, co-existent eternally in three equal persons - Father, Son, and Holy Spirit who are all fully God. In addition, we hold to Jesus' virgin birth, having been conceived by the Holy Spirit, making him fully man in addition to being fully God. Jesus' bodily resurrection, ascension, and future visible return are central to us, as is His present high priestly ministry. Not only did Jesus die, but he arose from the dead, defeating death, while his ascension means he can be at the Father's right hand on our behalf now, as we await his second coming. (Gen 1:1, John 4:24, 10:30 Luke 1:34-35, Luke 24:36-43,51; Heb 4:14, Acts 1:11).

We believe in the rebellion and fall of humanity, and our consequent moral depravity and death. From Adam on, all people have sinned, cutting all of us off from God and resulting in our death. Even as we are sinful, the Holy Spirit is convicting the world of its sin, and the need of personal regeneration (Gen 3:1-19, Job 1:6, Rom 3:9-18, Gal 5:16, John 3:3, John 16:8). Not only is the Holy Spirit reminding us we are sinful, but because Jesus died and was resurrected, we can repent of sin and be declared "not guilty" by faith in Him. This will lead to a life surrendered to the Lordship of Jesus Christ and his consequent provision of abundant, blessed, and changed life through the indwelling of the Holy Spirit. We also believe in the physical resurrection of everyone, both of the just and the unjust, and that there is eternal life in heaven for God's children, and eternal punishment in hell for those who have rejected Christ (John 16:8, Acts 13:38, 39; Rom 5:9, 18-19; 1 Cor 3:16, Gal 5:16; Rev. 20:11-15, 1 Cor 15:42-58).

ChristianCycling recognizes the importance of the local Church, including the practices of communion and baptism, as well as the need for Christian fellowship, communal worship and teaching. We also believe in a life dedicated to the proclamation of the good news of Jesus Christ with both words and actions (Heb 10:25, 1Cor 11:23-32, Matt 28:18-20; James 4:4, Rom. 12:1,2, 1 John 2:15-17, Gal 5:22-26; 2 Cor. 6:14-18, Acts 1:8, 2 Cor. 5:19, 20; Matt 28:18-20).

Building the Body Commitment Letter

Dear BTB Outreach Team Member,

We are excited about your participation in one of our BTB Outreach Trips this year. We have seen the Lord work in wonderful ways in the lives of past trip participants, and we are confident that He has a very special plan for you as you prepare for this outreach.

We believe that these trips are very serious steps of faith for both yourself and CHRISTIANCYCLING. We therefore feel it is important to put into writing both what you can expect from CHRISTIANCYCLING and what we can expect from you during the whole process of your preparation for going. CHRISTIANCYCLING therefore commits to:

Help you, to the best of our ability, to be as prepared as possible for your outreach experience. We will do this through our planned times of training and preparation.

Assist you, to the best of our ability, in your raising of the finances needed to fund the outreach.

Do everything within our ability to plan an outreach experience that will provide you with a positive experience of seeing God at work in and through believers in another culture and will allow you to become a part of what God is doing in that culture.

Coordinate with missionaries in the field and/or designated team leaders to ensure the safest possible travel and accommodations considering the specific location of the outreach.

Commission you and your team before the body of CHRISTIANCYCLING and send you out with the prayer support of that body.

In return we would ask your commitment to:

Set aside a time of regular and consistent prayer for yourself, the team and the people you will be ministering with and to.

Attend all of the pre-designated training/preparation times so that you might become as equipped as possible to function as a valuable team member.

Do everything within your ability and be faithful in your attempt to raise the financial supported needed for the outreach, even if it might mean personal sacrifice on your part. Additionally, we ask that you be willing to meet with the BTB Task Force to discuss your progress in fund raising and evaluate the potential for the successful completion of your fund raising efforts.

Participate faithfully in all team fund raising efforts.

Make the outreach and your team a top priority in your life between now and the outreach so that specially called meetings, team members' requests for help and time in prayer take precedence over most of your other day to day commitments and obligations.

We look forward to traveling this exciting road with you and seeing the specific ways that the Lord will use this experience to change your life! May God bless you on your journey.

Because He Lives!
